SAINTS OF THE WEEK:

Friday: St Peter Claver (1581-1654) A native of Catalonia in Spain, he became a Jesuit and went out as a missionary to South America in 1610. There in what is now Columbia he started to minister to the slaves being brought over from Africa in dreadful conditions. He declared himself the slave of the negro slaves and despite much opposition from slave owners he championed their cause and devoted himself for many years to their welfare both spiritual and temporal. He is said to have personally instructed and baptised over 300,000 slaves.
