PEACE SUNDAY, 20th January is a special day of prayer for peace. The Theme is Good politics serves peace. Bringing peace is central to the mission of Christ's disciples. That peace is offered to all those men and women who long for peace amid the tragedies and violence that mark human history. The "house" of which Jesus speaks is every family, community, country and continent, in all their diversity and history. It is first and foremost each individual person, without distinction or discrimination. But it is also our "common home": the world in which God has placed us and which we are called to care for and cultivate. So let this be my greeting at the beginning of the New Year: "Peace be to this house!" Pope Francis. Please visit www.paxchristi.org.uk for more information.

SAINTS OF THE WEEK:

12th January: St Aelred of Rievaulx (1109-67) The son of a Saxon Priest at Hexham, he was in early life a courtier in the household of King David of Scotland. He then became a Cistercian Monk at Rievaulx in 1147. He wrote his first important work at the invitation of St Bernard. His interest in psychology and his devotion to the suffering humanity of Christ led him to write especially about the nature of friendship for which he is most famous. He also wrote a life of Edward the Confessor.
