PEACE SUNDAY, 20th January is a special day of prayer for peace. The Theme is Good politics serves peace. Bringing peace is central to the mission of Christ's disciples. That peace is offered to all those men and women who long for peace amid the tragedies and violence that mark human history. The "house" of which Jesus speaks is every family, community, country and continent, in all their diversity and history. It is first and foremost each individual person, without distinction or discrimination. But it is also our "common home": the world in which God has placed us and which we are called to care for and cultivate. So let this be my greeting at the beginning of the New Year: "Peace be to this house!" Pope Francis. Please visit www.paxchristi.org.uk for more information.

SAINTS OF THE WEEK:

17th January: St Anthony of Egypt (c.251-356) In his late teens Anthony gave away his possessions to live a life of asceticism. Eventually he moved into the desert to be completely alone and undistracted in his search for God. There he had many visions. The discipline and holiness of his life attracted increasing numbers of followers. In c.305 he came out of solitude to organise these into simple communities of hermits, so beginning the process that was to establish monastic life as an important element in the Church. The life of Anthony, thought to have been written by St Athanasius had a huge impact in the west as well as the East and did much to popularise monastic life in the West of Europe. Patron Saint of skin diseases, basket makers, brush makers, grave diggers and swine-herders.
