COVID-19 RESTRICTIONS - Please help us to continue to provide a safe environment for all who gather in our Church for worship. Please feel free to continue to wear face coverings in Church, hand sanitiser will remain available at entry and exit points and as social distancing is now a personal choice, please respect other attendees who may wish to continue with a more cautious approach.

SUNDAY REFLECTION:

I will follow you wherever you go.

When Christ calls us to follow him, he wants us to make no excuses but to follow immediately. His service is perfect freedom and it is in the service of each other through the love of Christ that we discover the true meaning of liberty. God's Spirit will keep us close to Christ. We have nothing to fear, since love casts out fear.

POPE'S INTENTIONS FOR JULY:

For the elderly. We pray for the elderly, who represent the roots and memory of a people; may their experience and wisdom help young people to look towards the future with hope and responsibility. See also <https://thepopevideo.org/>

SAINTS OF THE WEEK: Tuesday: St Irenaus (c.130-c.200) One of the founders of Christian theology, much of his writing was devoted to combating unorthodox versions of the Christian message. He was influential in promoting the bishops of the church as the proper interpreters of this message.

Wednesday: SS Peter and Paul - St Peter was one of the first of the disciples called by Christ and became the chief apostle. Peter is in fact a nickname, being the Latin for Rock. As such he is regarded as the base on which the church was built up. He comes across in the gospels as a warm and rather impulsive character. St Paul, who never knew Jesus in the flesh, began as a fierce opponent of the early Christians. After a dramatic conversion experience he became perhaps the pre-eminent influence on Christian thinking and the spread of Christianity throughout the Roman world. They are given a joint feast to mark the fact that they were the leading lights of the young church in Rome and both were martyred there during the terrible persecution by Nero c.65.

SUNDAY COFFEE/LIBRARY: Please join us for coffee after Mass in the Hall, it's a wonderful opportunity to get together socially and our Library will be open for you to come and choose your books, all donations go to the Church.
